

Fred Abdelnour

Director of Community & Government Affairs
Southern California Group
Enterprise Rent-A-Car

A career-long dedication to Enterprise Rent-A-Car and the communities it serves has been a defining principle of Fred Abdelnour's 20 year professional life at Enterprise. Abdelnour has demonstrated a firm commitment to reaching out to people of all backgrounds. He has worked to advance the company's diversity goals, community relations initiatives and governmental affairs in all areas of its business.

As Director of Community & Government Affairs for the Southern California group, Abdelnour oversees community relations, public policy and public relations for the 3,500 employees, 450 locations and 85,000 vehicles within Southern California.

Abdelnour currently serves as President of the Board of Directors for the Challenger's Boys and Girls Club and is a member of the United Way of Greater Los Angeles' Community Investment Board. Abdelnour is also Co-Founder of LA Community Leaders group that is focused on increasing corporate social responsibility throughout Southern California.

Abdelnour resides in Long Beach with his wife, Michelle, and two boys, Matthew 10 and Andrew 8.

